OIL PAINTING WORKSHOP WITH

BARBARA TIFFANY

Aug. 30, - Sept. 5 2009. Price included in regular fees.

Join Barbara for intense painting classes while staying at the Drowsy Water Ranch. You will have a chance to paint each day or enjoy other activities the ranch has to offer. Painting times are flexible and there will be two scheduled painting demonstrations. All skill levels welcome.

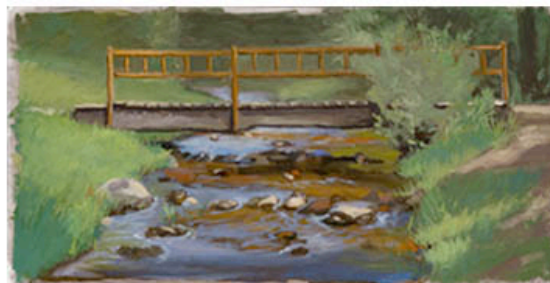

Each student will receive individual attention geared toward enhancing their unique style of painting while adding to their own observation skills.

Starting with a career in commercial art, she became a full time fine artist in 1982 and began teaching at The Maitland Art Center in 1983 through 1995 where she also maintained a studio from 1987 to 2008. Also, while in residence there, she organized and attended workshops taught by Gregg Kreutz, an instructor from The Art Students League in New York City. The workshop were annually from 1991 to 2005.

Barbara, a Florida artist, has roots in Colorado going back four generations. In fact, the town of Tiffany, Colorado was named for her Grandfather, Edwin Mayer Tiffany.
